Angels Hail Birth of Jesus in Manger at Little Village of Bethlehem, Judea

Prophets of Old First Announce Prince of Peace

ISAIAH, JEREMIAH, MICAH ALL DIVINED ADVENT OF SAVIOUR AMONG PEOPLE 'WHO WALKED IN DARK'

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child, and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to him: Immanuel, Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of our Righteousness, Son of the Highest, and Jesus.

Since the birth here today of the Wonder Child, and the excitement and rejoicing that have followed, local scribes have been searching history and the bible and point to the predictions of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micah, and others.

The following quotations are given as vital to the Messiah's coming:

The Lord spake again to Ahaz saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God . . . But Ahaz said I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord, And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David . . . Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.—Isaiah 7:14.

Will Come at Dark Hour

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDERFUL, COUNSELOR, THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVERLASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE. OF the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and justice henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.—Isaiah 9:2-7.

To Gather Lost Tribes

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds . . . and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord. Behold the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.—Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid seige against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. . . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.—Micah 5:1-4.

Virgin Birth Recorded

In the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city in Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed are thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name, JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man: And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: and therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.—Luke 1:26-35.

SHOPKEEPER HAS DOUBTS ABOUT JESUS

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—"All this excitement has made more business for my shop, but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a pawn shop here who has not yet visited the new-famous birthplace of the infant Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor, and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had been too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business now than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtfully. "If I had only known—" and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Bethlehem City In Historical Site

MANY SIGNIFICANT EVENTS OF WORLD HAVE TAKEN PLACE IN SMALL TOWN

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—This little white-walled city, surrounded by its hills, vineyards and olive yards, has a significant history. It is about six miles south of Jerusalem, the largest city in Palestine, which is itself a little land, being only about 200 miles in length and 50 miles broad.

More than a thousand years ago, David, as a lad, kept his father's sheep in the very hills and valleys where the shepherds last night received their heavenly visitation. One mile northwest of Bethlehem, thick dark forests of cedar cloister the brow of the hill where is to be found the well of Saul. Here the Prophet Samuel anointed him first King of Israel.

It was to Bethlehem that Ruth and Naomi returned.

Now Micah's prophecy has been proved true concerning the town as the birthplace of the Christ: "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel."

DOGS AND SHEEP OVERCOME BY CELESTIAL RADIANCE

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The shepherds' dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men report.

HEROD'S SPIES DEPARTING HURRIEDLY FOR JERUSALEM

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Several known spies and sycophants of the court of King Herod, who for the greater part of the morning have been furtively watching the stable wherein the King of Glory rests in his swaddling clothes, left on camels bound presumably for Jerusalem.

Herod is known to be extremely interested in the journeys of the Magi to Bethlehem.

CHRIST'S BIRTH STORY

Page 1 of our Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it would have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written by a member of the Scottsbluff (Nebr.) Star-Herald staff, and the dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was written in the Bible.

We copied it from the Christmas, 1950 issue of the Coronado (Calif.) Journal-Compass.

Herod, in Dread, Seeks to Delude Sages from East

MANGER MIRACLE STORY TOLD OVER AND OVER AS GROUPS COLLECT

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the miraculous birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions, and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagances. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the king of Augustus' own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fears of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than as a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, makes it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

Inn Keeper's Faith in Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1—Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired—but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him, too, made me want to call them back.

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable, somehow."

THE WEATHER

For Bethlehem and vicinity: Monday, fair with cool winds from Mediterranean. Tuesday fair, with clouds from the north in afternoon; rising temperature.

Northern Palestine: Unsettled; little change in temperature.

Lower Arabia: Stormy weather, unsettled conditions.

PLAINLY AWED, SIMPLY CLAD BOY SAYS, 'MARY SMILED AT ME!'

NAZARAETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—A young boy—one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stable when the presence of the child became known.

Roughly clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the East too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the clear eyes of a child seized upon.

"Everything seemed so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked.

The lad flushed, then confided: "Joseph asked me to help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered, low-like: 'There wasn't any room for us.'

"I felt sorry for her, and then she smiled again and just whispered: 'But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You mustn't feel sorry for us.'

"And, do you know, somehow I wasn't. I still feel strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me. I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

Magi Pursued Star of East to Son of Mary

Now when Jesus was born . . . behold, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and here come to worship him.—Matt. 2:1.

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurrence.

Three sages from the East, impressive in the richness of their many-colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journey across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of a tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy, "There shall come a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre shall arise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

Present Gifts to King

These three Magi who bear the names of Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the journey, and to buy gifts for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

When they were asked if the commonplace surroundings seemed out of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchoir, this wise man, answered:

Not in Palace

"The King we seek is not to be found in a palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificence of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. An the kingdom which is to be established forever is a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

'Look Among the Lowly'

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how this shall come to pass, nor how the turbulent kings and peoples of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know. Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and the lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

The men seemed little disposed to talk about returning by way of Jerusalem and encountering Herod. There is a rumor that they are making their caravans ready to go through Egypt.

Wherever they go, they are followed constantly by crowds of both adults and children, their stateliness and air of wisdom being especially interesting.

Astrologers of Jerusalem Predict Sorrow and Tragedy For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say this country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while He is still an infant, and because of an attempt upon His life, many children will be killed.

He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to Him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable men here, who read aloud pathetic words which fortell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief."

Their search of the records, it is believed, will continue for many weeks, and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finding will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their charts probably will be considerably altered by further study, and, indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

MESSIAH MEETS WORLD TORN BY INTERNAL STRIFE

'THEY SAY HE IS A KING!' PEOPLE EXCLAIM, BUT NOTE PARENTS' POVERTY

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Christ was born last night. They say He is a king. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by a troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of a scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scripts and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdom. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of Him in terms of shining raiment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see Him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpts; they didn't think his companions could be rough haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't supposed that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah, and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Magi's Wisdom is Greatest in World, Declares Caspar

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—This is what Caspar, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise, but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

Heavenly Hosts, Three Wise Men Welcome Christ

LOWLY SHEPHERDS WITH FLOCKS ON NEARBY HILLS FIRST TO NOTE MIRACLE OF CELESTIAL VISITATION

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as word emanates from it that the long-prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confounded them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David who, Scriptures have said, will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the son of God.

The appearance of a new star of great magnitude and luminescence, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

Shepherds Hear Angels

The infant, born to Mary, a Jewish girl from Nazareth, who is the wife of Joseph, a carpenter, was first discovered by a group of shepherds who received the news of His birth from a band of angels while they were tending their flocks in the low-lying hills just outside the city.

Descending in a blaze of heavenly glory that prostrated the little group of men and boys with amazement, the divine visitors told them not to be afraid but to go to a stable in Bethlehem, where they would find the Christ in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

This the shepherds did, being guided all the way by an angel. There they found the child, but recently born, with his parents and stable animals. So deep was the conviction of the angels' message upon them, that they immediately accepted him as the promised Saviour, and fell upon their knees and worshipped him.

Magi Follow Too

Following in quick succession the visit of the shepherds, a caravan of wise men, or Magi, from the Orient, also came to the humble birthplace bearing jewels and precious gifts. To them too, this was a long-awaited event, since they are close students of astronomy, and were watching for the star. When it appeared they regarded it as the sign that the child had been born which the prophet Isaiah had foretold.

While the largest part of the population here is talking of the event in tones of unsuppressed awe, and plainly regard it as a means by which they will be delivered from their Roman oppressor, there are many who are frankly skeptical. They feel that the future Christ will come from a more significant source.

Everyone Excited

The whole atmosphere here has been one of unusual excitement for the past few days, since that was the time decreed by Augustus Caesar for all taxpayers in Judea to be registered. Mary and Joseph, being of the house of David, were required to come to Bethlehem; and although Mary was an expectant mother, and the 50-mile journey from Nazareth in Galilee was extremely arduous for her, the urgency of the order was such that they dare not stay.

From meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservation for lodging.

The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable, where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

Great Joy Rules in Town of David as Realization Dawns

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the news was first given. The little group, who were guarding their flocks from foxes and wolves that still roam the hills of Palestine, speak with great wondering of last night's message from the sky.

The amazing light together with the chanting of a heavenly host, has brought an incoherence to their speech; but the radiance of their faces is more impressive than any words could be.

"An angel of the Lord suddenly flashed before us, and the glory of the Lord shone all around us," one of them said. "We were frightened but the angel said 'Have no fear. This is good news I am bringing to you, news of great joy that is meant for all the people. Today you have a Saviour born in the town of David, the Lord Messiah. And here is a proof to you: you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle.'

"Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'"

Having sung this song, the angels went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before.

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sounds," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning, we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Brilliant Star Presaged Sacred Mystery of Birth

JERUSALEM, Jan. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Eminent astronomers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods such stars, or nova, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explain, resulted from the conjunction of the two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Mary and Joseph Both Descendants Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Although Mary, mother of the Saviour, and her husband Joseph live among the humbler folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judah, and the descendants of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies, thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem, whereas Mary lives in Nazareth, 80 miles distant. But when the Emperor Augustus called for the regular 10-year-census, he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph, belonging to the family of David, were required to go to Bethlehem.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

Assist Given Grove School Tax Load By Annexation Denial

The decision last week by the board of supervisors to deny the request to annex a portion of the Lemon Grove School District to the San Diego City Unified School District has important implications to the residents of Lemon Grove. The portion of land in question included the site of a proposed eleven million dollar shopping center at College Avenue and Broadway.

The decision that permits the land to remain in Lemon Grove as part of the school district is especially important to those people living in the area because they, as parents, wish their children to attend Lemon Grove schools. A delegation of over 40 mothers and many fathers attended the hearing December 13, and voiced objections to leaving present schools. James Johnson, 3424 Meridian Avenue, helped lead the fight against annexation. He was assisted at the hearing by William Engelke, 3439 Meridian, and Melvin Clayton, 3341 Meridian.

Lemon Grove now has an assessed valuation of approximately 15 million dollars. According to Byron Netzley, district superintendent here, the commercial development will greatly aid the Lemon Grove school tax load. "We have at present no comparable area from which the schools can realize revenue without additional school costs."

Teh action may tend to establish a policy that those lands annexed to other districts do not necessarily need to be annexed to those school districts. This may mean that many areas may not be annexed at all, thus protecting the boundaries of school districts which are adjacent to larger ones.

Four members of the five man board heard arguments presented by leaders from San Diego schools as well as from residents and other interested people of Lemon Grove. Frank Armstrong, an attorney who serves on the Lemon Grove school board, made a strong plea for the denial on the basis of months of study. The move was opposed also by Dr. Cecil Hardesty, county superintendent of schools, and the County Committee on School District Organization. Lewis Smith, Grossmont superintendent, stated that the Grossmont school board also opposed the annexation. The land in question lay within the boundaries of the Grossmont Union High School District.

Three members of the board of supervisors, Supervisors Howell, Gibson, and Bird, voted to permit Lemon Grove schools the land. Supervisor Austin voted for the request, stating he felt the land belonged in the city system. Absent was Supervisor Robbins.

PRIEST PARTY IS LALLAPALOOZA

Nearly 100 employees, their families and friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Priest Sunday at a Christmas party.

The festive crowd danced to a six piece orchestra around the edge of a heated swimming pool, dined from a sumptuous table loaded with smoked turkey and all the trimmings, and enjoyed generous libations from a well stocked bar.

The Priests operate seven beauty shops in greater San Diego. Employees presented the hostess with an eight piece service set of imported china.

Fire Department Party Gets 'O. K.' Label From Youngsters

About 50 members and members of families of the Lemon Grove Fire Department, and some invited guests, attended a traditional Christmas turkey feast Sunday at the Youth Center.

Santa Claus, who looked remarkably like Fire Captain Ray Cormody, distributed gifts to all. Chief Hensley resolved a knotty problem of gifts for the youngsters by having parents bring presents for their own children. No one was overlooked or slighted.

Guests brought the food and table service but the turkey was ably cooked and donated by the Fire Department Relief Association and the Fire Department auxiliary worked their fingers to the bone getting the affair organized.

In all, it was a grand Christmas party and the kids proved it better than any.

Any family driving south on Skyline Drive, or joining east-west traffic on Jamacha Road to that intersection, will be provided with a never-to-be-forgotten Christmas thrill. A lighted 7x21 foot backdrop gives the Bethlehem scene depth and color. To further add to the illusion, the Biblical characters, portrayed by members of the Youth Fellowship, will be posed in and about a huge stable, forming realistic nativity scene. Live donkeys, sheep and other farm animals included develop the authenticity of this stable picture. Passersby will enjoy the lighted Living Nativity Scene, as it is viewed to the background of sacred Christmas music coming from the church tower.

Pastor Orval C. Butcher announces that this beautiful event will be re-enacted each night from 7 to 9 p.m. on the church lawn, December 21 through the 25th. On the closing night, a drama in music and story will be presented in the church also.

Characters in the Living Nativity Scene include Freida Bradford, Art Sutorus, Kenny Snell, Whitey Crabill, Steve Jones, Roger Graham, Bill Storm and Bill Gates.

Family of Bitten Girl Seeks Animal

Friends and neighbors of Dr. and Mrs. Don G. Johnson, 2966 Buena Vista, are searching for a white and tan collie about three or four years old which bit the couple's young daughter Barbara last week.

The dog had "adopted" the Johnsons a few weeks ago but after he bit the youngster he fled.

County health authorities want to hold the dog for observation until it is ascertained that rabies is not involved. Meanwhile Barbara is taking the series of painful rabies shots.

Persons seeing the dog should call Mrs. Johnson at HO 6-7529

WATER WORKS ASSESSOR QUITS

James L. "Jim" Squire, 72 tendered his resignation Tuesday as assessor - collector - treasurer of the Lemon Grove Water Works. He had served in that capacity for more than 20 years.

Squire began his service with the district in February 1935 and was re-elected to a four year term last February. He said that the policy of the present board in failure to provide employees to keep maps and records up to date had distressed him during recent years. When they failed to improve the situation after his re-election earlier this year he decided to resign, he said.

Thanks From the Post Office

By POSTMASTER FAUCHER

Postmaster Frenchy Faucher and the entire staff of the Lemon Grove Post Office wish to take this opportunity to wish all of their patrons a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

They also want to thank everyone for their cooperation in bundling Christmas cards, and by using the annex building for parcel post mailing. We have been able to give excellent service with your help. The staff expects to get all of your Christmas mail, which has reached Lemon Grove, to you by Christmas.

Commercial Vehicle Licenses Should Be Acquired Now

Owners of trucks, buses, cabs and other commercial vehicles may secure their 1956 license plates and their registration renewals now, State Department of Motor Vehicles announced this week.

He urged them to apply for their 1956 registrations during the month of December, before the annual renewal of private passenger cars begins in January.

Statements of fees due for the coming year on over 1,000,000 commercial vehicles owned in the state were mailed on December 1. They are due on or before February 4, 1956. The statements for private passenger cars, numbering over 5,000,000, are being released the first business day after Christmas. These also must be paid by February 4. Penalties take effect February 5.

Temporary renewal stations installed in metropolitan area banks will be unable to handle commercial truck, trailer and cycle renewal and plate applications for 1956, because of the problem of storing the plates in such temporary space. Owners of all vehicles in these classifications must apply directly to permanent offices of the department, or by mail to the Department of Motor Vehicles at Sacramento. The bank stations will serve private passenger car owners only from January 3 through February 3.

AREA PUBLISHER PRINTS JUNIOR EDITION

Jim Hill, publisher of the La Mesa Scout, became a father for the first time Saturday, when his wife, Aurora, gave birth to an 8 pound, 5 ounce boy.

The couple christened the youngster Christopher Michael. Being a firm believer in home industry, Hill arranged to have the baby arrive at the district's hospital, Grossmont.

Hot Toddies to Reign At Men's Club Friday

Traditional hot toddies will be served Friday at the Men's Club with Henry Goldy as host. It is planned that knotty community problems will be laid aside for at least one week while fellowship and good will are enjoyed by members.

Nothing will be done until after the first of the year on enlisting the aid of other clubs, groups and organizations to help implement the Men's Club decision to incorporate the community. Dr. Gilbert Chassey, chairman of the committee, said that he would announce his committee members at the first meeting of the new year.

Meanwhile, by a vote of seven to nine the club had voted to further incorporation. Twenty-nine persons abstained from voting.

Lester Freeman, La Mesa city clerk, was speaker and told the club of the sources of revenue available to a sixth class city. Ed Gruhler, veep of the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce, told of some upcoming Jaycee projects.

Parking Spot Being Resurfaced

A blacktop - and - decomposed - granite surface is being applied on at least one section of the Chamber of Commerce parking leasehold acquired from the railway this week.

The area from Broadway north to Lester Avenue has been graded on the east side of the tracks. Nick Cesena, 7812 North Avenue, was awarded the contract for approximately $500.00. Another bidder had offered to do the job for $900.00.

GROVE RESIDENT BUILDS UNUSUAL DECORATION

One of the most unusual Christmas decorations in Lemon Grove this year is an "exploding" star atop the home of Ina and Bruna Leonesio, 7602 Circle Drive.

As the decoration revolves slowly the star takes shape and quickly enlarges and "explodes" finally in an electrical display of Christmas lights.

The sequence then repeats itself.

Leonesio built the device from spare electrical parts during spare time during the summer. It can be seen from Imperial Avenue from just north of the San Diego city line.

GLEE CLUB FEATURED AT B.W.L. MEETING

Forty members of the Golden Avenue School Glee Club presented Christmas carols at the holiday meeting and party of the Business Women's League held Thursday at Michael's.

Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen, a member of the league, introduced Miss Elouse Brashear and John Pearson, teachers, who directed the Caroliers.

During the business session when progress reports on the sale of tickets for the money doll were made, Mrs. Vera Chaffee was presented a portrait of Christmas Carole for dressing the doll.

The drawing will be held today (Thursday) at 4 p.m. on the Plaza grounds.

Mrs. John Farel has completed preparations for a delightful Christmas for the league's "adopted" families including food, toys and Christmas trees with all the trimmings.

Mrs. Charles Coffey of the Dinner Bell Cafe is being welcomed as a new member of the Business Women's League.

NAVY PERSONNEL NEEDS HOUSING

Navy enlisted men and their families are having a difficult time trying to find rental units in the San Diego area. This information was released this week by the Eleventh Naval District housing officer, who at the same time, requested San Diego landlords to come to the servicemen's rescue.

Housing officer would like to obtain as many listings as possible for both furnished and unfurnished units. Because of the low income bracket of the average enlisted man, particular emphasis is being put on those rentals under $100 per month.

In two earlier requests by the housing office, more than 1,000 listings were phoned in by local landlords and nearly all of these have been rented.

Persons desiring to list private rentals with the Navy may do so by phoning AC 3-8148 or by mailing the information to Navy Housing Office, 3150 Barnett Avenue, San Diego.

George Nicklas, Veteran Seafarer, Still Going Strong Despite 94 Years

By DICK HENDERSON

"Toughest man in the San Diego area, you are told in Lemon Grove, is a resident there 86 years old. He got that way on sailing ships where human life was cheap and only the toughest of the tough survived. He is George Nicklas, born a Greek, and rated by contemporary fellow townsmen as a composite Sinbad, Samson and Don Juan."

"Hero of an odyssey to rival Mutiny on the Bounty' or any saga of the sea, this ancient mariner spins a salty tale of brutal skippers and bullying mates, of elemental brawls and gory quarter-deck massacres, spiced thruout by roguish lovemaking to bolster the sailor's reputation for having a girl in every port. Once, in Odessa, he had two — and thereby narrowly escaped rotting in Siberia."

"As burly today as a professional wrestler, Nicklas boasts he could climb a gangplank with 300 pounds of cargo in each of his huge hands. Despite his age and breadth of beam he moves with the nimble step of youth. Active in mind as in body, he has retained his faculties unimpaired, and has never thought of retiring. He works daily as a school janitor, lives alone and likes it."

"Although George's formal education was barely enough for reading and writing, he displays a text-book grasp of geography, of the world's monetary systems, of national industry, products and customs, and of navigation. He speaks six languages, and is a virtuoso of profanity in each."

The foregoing was taken from a story in the San Diego Union, written by Edmund Rucker and printed January 9, 1949. The whole story occupied four columns of space. Some of the interesting paragraphs follow.

"Now an American citizen, Nicklas was born in the Mediterranean Sea on a sail-driven freighter carrying the Austrian flag. His father, the ship's captain, was a Greek whose home was in storied island of Crete. When George was born his father was 80 years old and lived to 99 and died from an accident. George's grandfather on Crete lived to the ripe old age of 136."

"After his father's death in Crete, his mother sent George to a rich uncle in Sacramento. The uncle had 13 children and not enough parental affection to welcome another. In George's words, 'He was no good to me' and the boy, after two years there, ran away to become a tramp."

"His sea roving began at Mare Island when he took a job with the U. S. Navy as deck boy on the wooden sail ship, Monongahela. He stayed 18 months on the Monongahela, voyaging to China, Japan and South America. (In those days, he explains, you signed up only for a cruise.) Thereafter on scores of vessels and in scores of foreign ports, he was tested in a stark, tooth and claw existence."

"Among the fabulous characters he recalls is a homicidal skipper he encountered first at Rangoon. George had quitted an english clipper ship and was whiling away lazy days ashore, soothed by the temple bells and the warm lips of a barefoot Burmese girl in a sarong when an American merchantman, the Ft. Stewart, arrived with seven of the crew dead."

"'They had been killed by the captain,' Nicklas said. The rest of the crew was badly beaten up. When the survivors had been paid off, the captain was escorted to the Rangoon brig. After a trial he was fined 75,000 rupees. (A rupee was then worth 45 cents in U. S. currency.) The skipper was free but found he could not ship a crew. He tried to coax Chinese sailors, but they "no savvee. He tried Indians, then Americans. No dice. He even tried to shanghai some Greeks, including myself but we were too alert. Finally he offered us Greeks $50 a month with three months' pay in advance."

"Money talks with Greeks and 22 of us signed up. But before we went aboard that merchantman those of us who didn't already pack a six shooter, bought one. As the tugs were towing the Ft. Steward down the Irawaddy river to the Bay of Bengal, the captain called his new crew on deck and shouted, 'Are all you guys really sailors? If not, God help you.'"

He walked up and down with his hands behind him, giving us the eye. Finally he bawled, 'I'm the meanest so-and-so on this windjammer.' He ordered the mate to bring him a bucket of salt water and washed his face in it. After that gesture—whatever its meaning—he said, 'I'm the king of the high seas. I don't care for the best —— man that walks a deck. He whipped out two six-shooters. The first man that opens his mouth to me impudent I'll shoot him like a fly. Who is the best man among you?"

One Greek spoke up quickly, 'I am.' The captain stared in amazement. Then each Greek displayed a six-shooter and the sailor who had spoken first ordered the captain to toss his guns over the rail. He obeyed, slapped his thigh and burst into loud laughter. 'By God, this is the crew I've been looking for all my life,' he roared. 'Keep the ship clean and I'll see that you get plenty to eat. Work your own time.'

"I never saw the captain after that first day."

Nicklas recited incidents that occurred during other voyages, but their recital would take too much space. One was about the time a captain rebuked him for not saying sir. A battle ensued, and Nicklas threw the captain over the rail.

Another is about the Russian incident, when he met the niece of a Russian governor and she fell for him. He stayed in Odessa for a couple of months, after about six weeks he got acquainted with a pretty singer in a waterfront cafe and soon was dividing his time between the two. One evening he was in the cafe and the singer motioned him out, said "Those Cossacks are looking for you." George went to the docks and got aboard a Greek ship sailing for Buenos Aires.

He remained at sea until 1935, when he quit sailing and came to Lemon Grove."

All of the above was taken from Edmund Rucker's story, which was handed to me by Max Goodwin. "This man is in San Diego. Find him and learn how he is getting along. He has a lot of friends in Lemon Grove who are interested."

I learned from friends of George Nicklas where I could find him, and called at 1133-15th Street, where he is star boarder and the only boarder in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manyon.

Asking for George Nicklas, I was cordially received and invited to enter.

The lady told George a man wanted to see him, and I heard him say "What does he want?" He finally came out, somewhat protestingly. George is blind now, has been for some time, and has to feel his way around.

Introducing myself as a reporter for the Lemon Grove Review, George said "I never heard of it. What do you want?" I explained that his friends in Lemon Grove were anxious to hear how he was getting along, and if he needed anything.

George said he was getting along fine, best home he ever had, and was very happy. It developed that prior to three months ago George had moved boarding places several times, too many men in rooms, food not especially good, landladies too bossy. You see, George is being cared for by the Blind Aid of County Welfare, and his pension is ample for his care. Mrs. Manyon, who sees that George gets three good meals a day, says he is happy and contented, has everything he needs, and that George says he is going to stay at her house till he passes on.

George was hard to interview. He answered direct questions, but wouldn't volunteer anything. He was born on a ship captained by his father, a native of Greece, in the Mediterranean Sea in 1861, which makes him 94 years of age.

He came to the United States in 1872, sailed on various ships, and in 1893 became a citizen. He joined the Navy at that time, and signed up for a two year cruise.

George worked as janitor in Lemon Grove schools when he was 85, and made many friends. After leaving Lemon Grove some six years ago he was unable, because of his eyes, to get steady work, and at that time the Blind Department of Welfare took over.

George asked me to give his regards to all Lemon Grove friends, Tony Somka and George Casteel.

It was a pleasure to talk with this 95 year old man. He wanted me to write a book, "But you will have to start at the beginning, not in Lemon Grove."

If you care to send him a card, address George Nicklas, 1133-15th Street, San Diego, care of Mrs. Manyon. It will brighten his day.

LITTLE SNAIL EATS BIG ONES IN TESTS

A tiny snail that attacks big ones—and does not eat plants—is now being tested by University of California scientists for possible use in California orchards and gardens.

A native of East India, the beneficial mollusc has successfully stopped infestations of the Giant African snail in the Pacific and shows promise of similar effectiveness against the common garden snail. It feeds only on other snails.

The predaceous snail attaches itself to the "foot" of the larger snail and gradually consumes its body contents.

TWO LODGE MASTERS IN OUR TOWN

Not often can one community boast of two masters of lodges, but Lemon Grove can.

Here, John Dall, who operates an insurance firm in Lemon Grove greets his Masonic equal number, Ernest Newton, who operates Lemon Grove Stationers.

Dall is master of Lemon Grove Lodge 736. Newton is master of Silver Gate Lodge 286. Both men were installed last week.

Don't Talk Baby Talk to Blind

Blindness is Minor Unless You Exaggerate it

By BOB TURNBULL

During the summer I spent many a day getting honest dirt under my fingernails only to wash it out on the weekends at the beach. One day while bathing under nature's vitamin C I ran across an old acquaintance of mine, a girl that I had met several years previously. I'll call her Betty. She is a very pretty and intelligent young lady, presently a junior at a large western university. During the course of our conversation I asked her in all sincerity what she didn't like about the way some people treat the blind. You see, Betty has been totally blind since birth.

She said the main item heading the list of do's and don'ts when conversing with the blind is don't use baby talk. You'll actually make these handicapped invidualls feel like helpless idiots if you say "ugsy-daisy" or "now move your little footsy-wootsy." Sounds ridiculous, doesn't it? But some people actually talk that way to many blind people.

Betty went on to say that when you meet a blind person don't hesitate to shake hands, it makes both of you feel more at ease. She also said that many people make the mistake of raising their voice or talking in simple language to blind. Because a person is blind doesn't necessarily indicate they have lost their hearing or have become mentally retarded.

One thing many normal folk are afraid to mention in their conversations with blind people is the word "see." If it is used like the following example then you're o.k.: "Do you see what I mean?" If the word "see" is used in that sense then there is no harm, but you shouldn't ever say "can't you even see that building?"

My friend really feels flush-faced if anyone remarks "how wonderful" over some accomplishment on her part that would be simple for the average person in good health.

She also feels that people should realize that blind men and women are humans with a minor handicap that the majority overcome to the degree of almost attaining their normality, physically speaking.

Lemon Grove Scout News

With a gaily decorated pinata swinging overhead, Christmas in Mexico was presented to the Cub Scouts and parents of Pack 308 by Dens 7 and 8 on Friday evening. How Supervisors Rejected S. D.'s School Land Grab

By DICK HENDERSON

The board of supervisors at Tuesday's meeting refused to annex a portion of Lemon Grove Elementary District to San Diego Unified School District. The proposed annexation includes the site of a projected 11-million-dollar shopping center at Broadway and College Avenue.

Another annexation proposal which involved a portion of La Mesa-Spring Valley School District was approved by the supervisors.

Both areas are in Rolando district, which recently annexed to the City of San Diego. The denial of the request refers to Lemon Grove district, and leaves the 11-million-dollar portion in Lemon Grove District.

An audience, largely composed of ladies, filled every seat in the supervisors' chambers. One lady brought her youngster along, and the kid protested vigorously and vocally at intervals during the arguments put forth by Dr. Ralph Daillard, city superintendent of schools, who spoke at length in favor of annexing a part of Lemon Grove School District, which incidentally includes the Walker-Scott tract with a potential value of ten million dollars.

This annexation petition was mixed up with Rolando, which is in La Mesa School District, and a majority of voters in Rolando voted recently to annex to San Diego Unified, and assume part of the debts, bond etc., of San Diego Unified. This brought Lemon Grove right up against the gun, and Dr. Daillard's arguments were all in favor of grabbing a large bite of Lemon Grove's pie. Gosh, if we keep on being nibbled at, all that Lemon Grove will have left will be the business center at Broadway and Imperial. It wasn't so long ago that La Mesa grabbed off a nice bite on the north side, tied it in to Windsor Hills, and Lemon Grove is cut down accordingly.

Dr. Daillard had a map drawn on the blackboard, with red lines showing what would be annexed, told how nice it would be for the kids to walk to school in San Diego and save riding on the school bus. Said a lot of money was invested in pipelines and other facilities, inferred that San Diego Unified offered better educational opportunities, etc.

Frank Armstrong, a lawyer and vice president of Lemon Grove School Trustees, announced early in the argument, that he would have something to say when his turn came, and he said plenty. Hung up a map, which he said was somewhat different from Dr. Daillard's, showed where the ten million dollar shopping center would be added to San Diego Unified and cause Lemon Grove to lose the revenue.

A letter from Dr. Cecil Hardesty, county superintendent of schools, opposed annexation, as did the county committee on school district organization.

Letter from Mr. Scott, moving spirit in the multi-million dollar shopping center, asked that the property remain in Lemon Grove. A photostat of this letter was filed.

About 100 families are included in the disputed territory, and all wished to remain in Lemon Grove.

Lewis F. Smith, superintendent of Grossmont Union High School District, which includes the disputed area, said his trustees also object to the annexation.

Three residents of the area—James Johnson of 3424 Meridian Ave., William Engelke of 3439 Meridian Ave., and Melvin Clayton of 3341 Meridian Ave., three neighbors, also spoke against annexation.

At the end of the discussion, after everyone who wanted to speak had his say, Supervisor Dave Bird, Lemon Grove's supervisor, moved that the petition be denied. Motion seconded, Supervisors Gibson, Bird and Howell voted in favor of denial, with Supervisor Austin voting no. Austin thought that the area is part of San Diego and should be handled through San Diego schools. (Austin's district is all in the city, with no outside voters.)

So was denied another attempt to grab off a big bite of Lemon Grove's piece of pie. You folks better wake up to the possibilities of being annexed by San Diego Unified, either by La Mesa on the north or San Diego on the south and west.

The supervisors approved the annexation of the La Mesa School District part of Rolando, which was a separate petition, not affecting Lemon Grove, but right next to it.

"The decision of the supervisors is highly significant as far as we are concerned because it means that every area that annexes to the city of San Diego need not annex also to the San Diego Unified School District," Byron Netzley, superintendent of Lemon Grove School district said in an interview.

"Retention of the shopping center site in our (school) district is extremely important," he said. "The Lemon Grove School District's assessed value is now approximately 15 million dollars. George Scott informed me last week that the shopping center will be an eleven million dollar development which will greatly help us with our school tax load."

Netzley previously had said his school district had no comparable area such as the shopping center site in which the district might realize revenue without additional school costs.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Just to note a revival of the Real Old Fashioned Christmas Spirit.

We were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening, December 17, by a fine group of Christmas carollers singing on our doorstep.

The group consisted of the Maisch family.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron C. Hall
3051 Olive Ave.

Dear Editor:

You gripe about the low cost per cubic feet of water we "farmers" receive as against your higher rate as household users.

True we do and should rate a slightly lower rate due to the large quantity of water we use irrigating our trees. If we did not here is one consequence—

Since the price per pound of avocados is largely based on cost to the grower plus a small profit (and I do mean small) as is any other commodity you may eat, wear, read, or darn near breathe, the price of avocados would rise according to the added rise in our water bills. The same is true of food raised by any farmer, and eaten by you householders. I imagine you would be among the first to holler about the high prices.

Also we "farmers" as do you publishers or whatever business you are in, rate a discount on anything bought in large quantities be it water or fertilizer, paper, ink, or paper clips!

True, perhaps, we shouldn't be in the same water district as you—originally this was all cattle country until you "sheep herders" moved in on us and forced us to subsidize you. Why don't you organize your own water department by incorporating Lemon Grove or else join in with San Diego's water department.

Howard Gardner
4002 Roger Rd., S. V.

Dear Mr. Gardner:

Let's look at it a different way, Mr. Gardner. You own the water works the same as you own your avocado grove. You are complaining that you might be forced to operate your grove at a loss if irrigation rates are increased. By that same formula you are apparently satisfied for your water works firm to take the loss.

You pay 9c per 100 cubic feet of water. I pay 31c and do not complain. The water both of us use costs approximately 16c per 100 c. f. to deliver to our meters. Every time an irrigator runs 100 c. f. through his pipes you are losing, through your water company, 7c. By comparison San Diego irrigation rate is 17c; Chula Vista irrigation rate is 13c.

Why do you object to selling your avocados below your cost and yet condone selling your water at a loss?

The editor

Dear Editor:

In behalf of the firemen and myself I would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends in Lemon Grove who gave to the cause of muscular dystrophy.

When this "burden" (because that was our first reaction) was presented to us we were not too eager to take on this responsibility. But then with a little more knowledge about muscular dystrophy we felt the need and went to work.

On December 5 and 6 this "burden" became a blessing as we gave of our time and you the people of Lemon Grove gave of your money. Our Lord said "It is more blessed to give than to receive." As we were unable to reach every home in these two nights there may be some who still wish to share this blessing. If so please leave contributions at the fire department or send them to the Lemon Grove Fire Department, care of Capt. Ray Carmody.

Our goal is $1000 and so far we have collected $409.35.

Chairman
Capt. Ray Carmody.

CHARTER NIGHT SETS GROVE JAYCEES INTO BEING

It was charter night for the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce and nearly 100 Jaycees from other communities, and their wives filled the meeting room at Michael's. Charter members totaled 27.

They were also greeted by National Director Wayne Stephenson of San Bernardino.

Traditional goat (not pictured), brought in by El Cajon Jaycees later in the evening, was foisted upon the La Mesa Club early the following week.

Guests of honor included Supervisor David Bird, Judge Luther Binney and Clarence Millbrodt, the latter representing the L. G. Chamber of Commerce. —L. G. Camera Foto

Test Yourself . . . If you think you can honestly give a good answer to the following questions, write them down and put a checkmark beside them. This is a test to see how you measure up as a teenage citizen of your community.

1. Can you tell the basic history of your home town? Your county? Your state? Your country?

2. Can you explain how your town government works? Your county government? Your state government? Your national government?

3. Can you name the political party in control of your town government? Your county government? Your state government? Your national government?

4. Can you tell me about one of the main problems of your town? Of your county? Of your state? Of your country?

5. Can you give four good reasons why we Americans prefer democracy above all other forms of government? (Put a check for each good reason you give.)

In the following questions put a check mark beside the question if you can answer yes to them.

6. Do you stick up for fair play to all, even though they may differ from you in religion, color or nationality?

7. Do you obey the laws of your community, even when no one is there to check up on you?

8. Do you talk over your community problems with others and seek ways to solve them?

9. Do you join and work with other teenagers and adults in projects to build a better community for all?

Now, figure your score. Give yourself an inch of citizenship "stature" for every one you checked in the first section of questions, and four inches for every question checked in the second section. Add up your score and measure it against the "Young Citizen Yardstick," meaning that up to 12 inches you are a "midget" citizen, up to 24 inches you are an "average" citizen and up to 36 inches you are a "tip-top" citizen. If you measure less than 12 inches, you may have some "growing up" to do.

Girls in the Lemon Grove area are eligible to enter the nation-wide "Queen of Liberty" contest, the winner of which will ride on the Snow Crop float in the famed Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade on January 2, Larry Childress, manager of Mayfair Market, has announced.

According to Childress, finalists from various regions of the country will be selected to appear on the December 29 "Queen for a Day" radio-tv show, when the "Queen of Liberty" is chosen.

Entry blanks for the contest are available at Mayfair Markets. To enter the contest, a girl need only fill out the blank and send it, together with a photograph of herself, to "Queen for a Day," Hollywood.

All finalists will be flown to Hollywood.

SUNDAY SERMON ON ATOMIC FORCE

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" This thought-arresting question is the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from Psalms (103:19): "The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all."

God's omnipotence is affirmed in a Bible passage from Isaiah (45:5, 12), "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: . . . I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded."

When success turns a man's head, it always leaves him looking in the wrong direction.

Costs $85 per month to keep up appearances, besides water. Merchants and businessmen contribute monthly, and the donations for Carol's fund help.—D. H.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Recently my faithful wife and I were about to leave on an auto trip of two day's duration, had kissed the youngsters goodbye and had given grandma full instructions on the care and control of young demons (she may not have needed the instructions having raised five to maturity although she was widowed when the oldest was nine years old) when she asked us a sobering question.

"What" she asked as innocently as if she were inquiring about the condition of the weather, "should I do with the children if something happens to both of you?"

Most of the holiday air dissolved and for the next five hours of the trip we discussed the hazards of driving and the eventuality of never returning because of a situation beyond our control.

We fell to talking about drivers who exercise what they consider their rights . . . but are sometimes wrong . . . dead wrong and when an insurance firm sent me a brochure a few days later (we did come back safely) on driving rights misconceptions I decided to pass on much of the information to our local drivers in hope that damage and injury may be be avoided.

Motorists with erroneous conceptions of his rights and who drives accordingly is more of a hazard than the deliberate law violator, the insurance firm says, and I agree with that. I think the deliberate guy only plays the percentages whereas the misguided guy bulls his way through in opposition to laws and rules followed by practically all other drivers and from this confusion comes crashes and death.

Common to California motorists are these misconceptions.

a. The driver on the right has the right of way at an intersection.

This is wrong. There is absolutely no "absolute" right of way. Law in general gives right of way to first car in intersection. When both approach at the same time only then does car on right have the right of way.

b. Cars have right of way over pedestrians at intersections without lights.

Wrong again. Pedestrians have right-of way at all intersections and crosswalks. Pedestrians must yield at places other than intersections and crosswalks and they must obey traffic lights.

c. If you are behind a school bus, traveling in the same direction, you have to stop if the bus stops to pick up or discharge children.

Partly right. You stop anytime a school bus stops regardless of whether you are traveling toward it or in the same direction.

d. You can proceed through caution when lights are changing from green to red.

You're wrong. Law says you stop on red or yellow unless you are already in the intersection. One exception is that you can proceed on yellow "cautiously" if you can't stop with safety, but in that event you are probably driving too fast.

e. You can turn anytime as long as you signal.

Wrong again. First you must be in the proper lane and you must signal at least 50 feet ahead of your change.

f. Pass anytime you see an opening.

Wrong! California law says you must give car approaching from opposite direction at least 100 feet clearance after you've passed and you shouldn't pass at all when approaching a bridge, viaduct or railroad crossing.

g. Bicycles are not subject to traffic laws.

Not so. Bicyclists must obey the same laws as auto drivers.

Probably as common as any misconception is that a no guilty police court verdict will exonerate them in a civil case. Actually, in California, one has no hearing on the other. You could be found not guilty in police court and lose a walloping sum in a civil court if it's proved that you were in the wrong.

Thus we take our leave of these irksome misconceptions comfortable in the knowledge that we can cope with these situations now that we know about them.

As a final word, and a good warning for the holidays when practically every driver has had "only a couple of beers" if you become involved in an incident concerning drink, I sincerely hope the smell of spirits will be on the breath of the other driver. We could lose some mighty fine readers for 60 or 90 days otherwise.

Merry Christmas!

DONNA HETRICK IS A HAPPY LITTLE GIRL

Donna Lee Hetrick, 1044 Englewood Dr., likes animals. She has a duck, two chickens, two dogs, a cat and a parrakeet. The animals are not penned, all play together, the four legged animals sleep together and the chickens and duck roost together. The parrakeet sleeps in the house. Besides the animals, Donna Lee has four uncles, a grandfather and grandmother, and her mother, to look after.

Mrs. Norma Jo Hetrick, Donna Lee's mother, is head coffee-maker at Civic Center coffee room, where city and county employees take their coffee breaks twice a day, five days a week. Norma Jo says they don't have a big house, but they get along well together. Truly a happy family.—D. H.

HEALTHFUL FOODS AVAILABLE IN LEMON GROVE

Folks on a diet, or needing foods without sugar (diabetics) or salt for whatever diet salt is forbidden, can get the proper foods at the Special Purpose Food Shop, 7894 Broadway.

Doing some window shopping on Thursday, we noticed a very attractive window display and went in, met Mrs. R. T. Carlton, owner of the shop, and asked questions. It happens that we have to avoid sugar in our eats, so we asked about substitutes, and were shown two or three, bought one for hotcakes.

A display on the counter of candied fruits, in baskets and on trays, attracted attention, but no chance to take a sample, as they were covered with plastic. "They make nice gifts to send east," Mrs. Carlton remarked.

Fresh vegetable juice is served —carrot juice for the eyes—we know this juice is helpful—and various other vegetable juices, fresh crushed, are available. —D. H.

DENTISTS NAMED FOR GROSSMONT HOSPITAL

Dr. Sheldon I. Brockett, resident of the east Mt. Helix area, has been named chief of the dental section of the medical staff of Grossmont Hospital.

Brockett was named at the first meeting of the executive committee of the dental section, held Tuesday night at the hospital. Dr. Robert A. Barnett of El Cajon was named secretary.

Other members of the executive committee are Drs. James E. Floto of La Mesa, Carl B. Stansbury of La Mesa and Douglas A. Westmoreland of El Cajon.

The section has approved rules and regulations which will govern practice in the hospital of the members of the courtesy dental staff.

Equipment for the oral surgery room has been received and installation work is underway.

Why I Think You Should Go To Church This Sunday

The Church is not an organization which has come into being through man's inventive genius, but is the creation of God. God, the Holy Spirit, has brought believers together into congregations in order that the Christian faith might influence society today and be the organism for delivering the Holy Scriptures and the Sacrament into the hands of the next generation. This will be accomplished only if you and I are faithful in maintaining our church relationship. Permit me to mention five reasons for faithfulness in church attendance.

First, anyone who recognizes the Sovereignty of God also recognizes the authority of the Scriptures. Throughout Scriptures, from the time when God gave to Israel the Tabernacle Worship, the assembling together of God's people has been the order for the Church. Jesus Christ, God's Son, our example, sought out the place where these who professed to have faith in God assembled on the Sabbath Day. The Apostles did likewise. The Word of God tells us that we must not "forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is."

Second, the human being is a social being. We need the fellowship with others in all healthy activities of life. The highest and noblest fellowship we can possibly have in this life is that of Corporate Worship. Our spirits are lifted through the fellowship in songs and hymns praising the Triune God. Our hearts are mellowed and made contrite in the fellowship in prayers offered in the Worship Service. Our faith is strengthened through participation in the liturgical service. Our faith is searched out, tested, purified, and our lives given direction in the hearing of the Message of sin, grace, life, salvation, and hope.

Third, it is only through the Church that we can effectively participate in the work of God's Kingdom. The greatest honor bestowed upon us as believers in God is that we are entrusted with the work of His Kingdom. Together we can maintain Churches dedicated to the Worship and Service of God in every community. Together we can carry on the work of the Missions at home and abroad.

Fourth, all believers, in all churches, in all lands, in all time make up a glorious unified body. Each individual believer is a member of that body. Every one is needed for the proper functioning of the whole. If one member does not function properly, the whole body suffers. That portion of the Universal Body of Christ worshiping at the House of God where you belong or in your community will be stronger and more effective, if you are there this Sunday and every Sunday.

Fifth, there will come a day when you and I shall stand before the King of kings and Lord of lords to give an accounting. We will not be judged on the basis of our success, but on the basis of our faithfulness.

Santa Anita to Open Christmas Monday

Santa Anita Park, conveniently located in Metropolitan Los Angeles on E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin's historic old rancho in Arcadia, has everything in readiness to open its 19th and biggest thoroughbred racing season on the Monday holiday, Dec. 26. A gathering of upwards of 50,000 is anticipated with the gates opening at 11 a.m. and the first race starting at 1 p.m.

The $20,000 Palos Verdes Handicap, for 3-year-olds and up at six furlongs, heads a banner eight race card as the opening attraction. After the Tuesday lay-off, the $15,000 La Centinela Stakes will be staged on Wednesday, Dec. 28.

Highlighted for the third consecutive season will be the only racing on grass in Western America. Santa Anita's Camino Real Turf Course is distinctive for the combination of high rolling land of the hillside, so popular in Europe for centuries, and the infield, the only mode in this country. It will be used for seven stakes and a number of overnight features.

Once again Santa Anita will have its brilliant mid-winter floral display; its scenic setting of the San Gabriel Mountains as a drop curtain; its annual Charity Week of racing, Jan. 31-Feb. 4; and the show of the world's greatest thoroughbreds with numerous foreign stars imparting an international lustre.

More Juice Planned By Gasco

San Diego Gas and Electric Company will install another 100,000 kilowatt generating unit at the Encino plant at Carlsbad, it was announced this week.

Total cost of the generating unit will be about $13 million. Project is to handle the anticipated continuing growth of the area. Company plans about 2½ years in advance of actual need, spokesmen said.

Mark Money to Preside Over Highway 94 Club

Mark Money, Chula Vista realtor, was unanimously elected president of the Highway 94 Club at last Thursday night's meeting at the Barrett Cafe.

Other officers elected were Eddie Leonard (past president) first vice president, Dulzura; Mrs. Charlotte Holcombe, second vice president, Dulzura; George Taylor, treasurer, Tecate; Mrs. Yvonne (Jill) Beckett, recording secretary, Barrett; Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, director, Tecate.

A delicious turkey dinner, with many potluck dishes was enjoyed by nearly 150 persons from all over the county. The table decorations were prepared by Mrs. Lillian Kemp, former Spring Valley resident, and Mrs. Maude Watson.

Christmas caroling by the school children of Dulzura and Barrett made up the program.

Herman Cramer and Lloyd Becker, both of San Diego, were introduced. They are two of the members of the former Highway 94 Association which disbanded about 1938, after operating but a short time. The association was set up to back a truck highway to Imperial Valley. Cramer was at one time part owner of the Cramer Bakery, which sold out to the Weber Bakeries. Becker is a San Diego bookbinder.

The Highway 94 Association still had money in the bank after all these years. Cramer and Becker very generously presented a check from the association to the Highway 94 Club.

The club received another check from the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce.

Outgoing President Leonard reported that the progress on the proposed Highway 90, from Florida to San Diego, is very favorable. He stated that G. T. McCoy, state engineer, is now attending a meeting in New Orleans, and will soon make a full report.

Leonard also said that Arizona will allow the highway to go to the New Mexico line, that New Mexico will allow the highway to go to the Texas line and Texas will allow it to cross that state.

So now, Leonard concluded, it's up to California. But there is a lot of pressure by Los Angeles being put on to stop the highway from entering San Diego.

William (Bill) Doughman, president of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, told of the progress being made on the Spring Valley Community Center. He said it was another example of cooperation. He told the Highway 94 Club that if they would all get together, they could have an unlimited amount of power to get what they wanted.

It was brought out that the Highway 94 Club is having the backing of several other communities in their Highway 90 and 94 fight. They aim to have Highway 94 made a two way laner all the way through, with the very important white line down the middle.

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE" SUBJECT OF LESSON SERMON

The Christmas Day Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, will be on the subject "Christian Science."

Included in the reading from the Bible by the Second Reader Christ Jesus declares, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you" (John 16: 12-14).

On motion of Supervisor Bird, seconded by Supervisor Robbins, the following resolution is adopted and notice is ordered by the Board of Supervisors of San Diego County:
